SO GO

SoGone SoFlexy is an unapologetically raw and charismatic force in Southern hip-hop, carving out a lane with his signature blend of truth, grit, and melody. Hailing from Texas, Flexy's music paints vivid portraits of his world—stories of survival, ambition, and resilience, delivered with a cadence that's both sharp and soulful. His voice is unmistakable, his perspective unfiltered, and his presence undeniable—qualities that have earned him not just local acclaim, but growing national recognition.

In 2025, SoGone SoFlexy took a major leap into the spotlight with two standout features on Kevin Abstract's critically acclaimed album Blush. Flexy's appearances on the tracks "H-Town" and "Copy" were instant fan favorites, cementing him as a rising artist with the energy and authenticity to command major attention. His verses cut through with emotion and hometown pride, bringing a street-level truth to Abstract's genre-bending project—one that continues to resonate across Houston, Austin, and beyond.

Following the Blush spotlight, SoGone SoFlexy has kept his momentum high with a string of strong solo releases. "Greyhound," "Barely Fittin' In," and "24HR3" showcase his versatility—whether he's gliding over melancholic melodies or snapping over trunk-rattling beats, each track reflects his growth as an artist and storyteller. With more on the way, Flexy's voice is becoming one of the most compelling in underground rap—a voice that refuses to be ignored.
